FiS Revenue 2020/2021

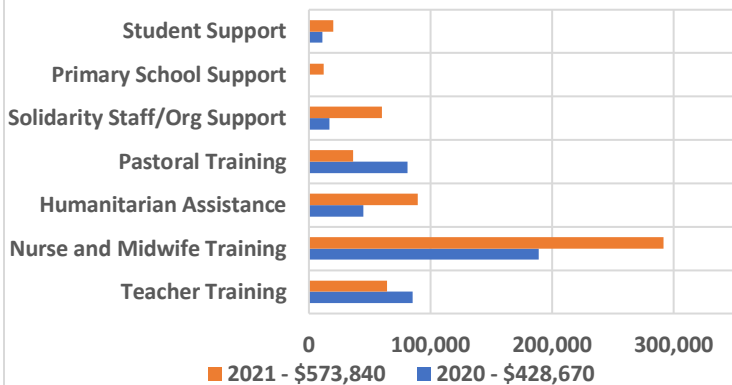

Friends in Solidarity, the USA partner to Solidarity with South Sudan, was the beneficiary of generous donors in 2021. Travel for exhibits and networking were curtailed for the year due to the pandemic.

- Revenues and transfers to Solidarity in South Sudan increased by 25% over 2020
- Congregational contributions increased significantly due to outreach by the Associate Administrator employed in late 2020
- Religious Congregations supporting Friends in Solidarity (FiS) increased from 54 to 66
- Foundation grant income increased by 16%
- Over 100 individuals made donations to Friends in Solidarity
- A webinar with John Grisham, the author of Sooley, raised significant revenue, which was matched by a generous donor, a first for Friends in Solidarity.
- Friends in Solidarity hosted webinars celebrating the work of Solidarity in South Sudan on international nurses' and teachers' days
